READING 1 REVELATION 11:19A; 12:1-6A, 10AB
God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple. A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadems. Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth, to devour her child when she gave birth. She gave birth to a son, a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and his throne. The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have salvation and power come, and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 45:10, 11, 12, 16
R. The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold. The queen takes her place at your right hand in gold of Ophir.
R. The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold. Hear, O daughter, and see; turn your ear, forget your people and your father's house.
R. The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold. So shall the king desire your beauty; for he is your lord.
R. The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold. They are borne in with gladness and joy; they enter the palace of the king.
R. The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold.

READING 2 1 CORINTHIANS 15:20-27
Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the first fruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for "he subjected everything under his feet."

GOSPEL LUKE 1:39-56
Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled." And Mary said: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever." Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

ANTIPHONS in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: O, come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON: The angel of the Lord will encamp around those who fear him, and he will rescue them: Taste and see that the Lord is good.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age, says the lord.

READING 1                      ISAIAH 56:1, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed. The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants—all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

RESPONSORIAL                      PSALM 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us. So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation.

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity; the nations on the earth you guide.

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you! May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

READING 2                      ROMANS 11:13-15, 29-32

Brothers and sisters: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

ALLELUIA    MATTHEW 4:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL    MATHEW 15:21-28

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon.” But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her. Jesus’ disciples came and asked him, “Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us.” He said in reply, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, “Lord, help me.” He said in reply, “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” She said, “Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.” Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And the woman’s daughter was healed from that hour.

FATHER BRICE

PASTOR

CHURCH POINT, LA

- Favorite thing about Louisiana: the people ... our hospitality and joie de vivre
- Favorite saint: St. Joseph ... Although much less holy than Jesus and Mary, he protected, loved, and guided them with the authority given to him by God the Father and, as such, was an image of the Father in their home. I desire to, by God's grace and St. Joseph's intercession, father our parish like Joseph fathered the Holy Family.
- One of your bucket list items: To con-celebrate the Mass for the Feast of the Ugandan Martyrs in Uganda (June 5, which is also my anniversary of presbyteral ordination)
- Favorite holiday: Easter, because Jesus Christ conquered death and rose from the dead.
- All time favorite Halloween costume: a priest
- Pizza Topping: Cauliflower Crust, Turkey Pepperoni, and Lots of Cheese
- One of the best books you've read: ?The Lord of the Rings by J.R.R. Tolkien because it immerses the reader in a Catholic worldview, forming the imagination to see God and His angels active in everyday life outside of the books.
- What advice would you give your 18 year old self? Live your life. Be virtuous. Don't worry about what others think or say.
- What do you think heaven is like? better than I could possibly imagine

FATHER PATRICK

PAROCHIAL VICAR

THIBODAUX, LA

- Favorite saint: St John of the Cross has always been one of my favorite saints. He was one of the first saints I came across in college and has stuck with me ever since. He speaks beautifully of the soul's relationship with God and God's desire to be in union with us. He also speaks profoundly into the realities of spiritual darkness that offers light and hope in those more difficult times. He has been a steady rock for me who has taught me much and, I pray, interceded for me much.
- One of your bucket list items: Walk the Camino de Santiago in Spain
- Favorite holiday: Christmas! The Advent season before has always been my favorite because of the joyful expectation of Jesus' coming! Also, the lights and decorations, the parties with friends and family - it's all great!
- All time favorite Halloween costume: Ginger-bread Man
- Pizza Topping: PINEAPPLE!!!!!!
- What advice would you give your 18 year old self? Be yourself and trust in the Lord - He is real, He has gifted you, and He provides!!
- Invite three people (dead or alive) to a dinner party: Venerable Carlo Acutis, Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, and Venerable Matteo Farina - my favorite "modern" and young saints. I would love to hear their stories and see what they were like!

Beauty: Integritas

What makes something “beautiful”? Is beauty really “in the eye of the beholder”? Beauty is necessary for our lives. Some people reading this right now might think that’s an overstatement, but it isn’t. Beauty is absolutely necessary for us to live a full and rich life in the Lord, because Beauty is what the Church calls “the splendor of the truth” (in Latin, veritatis splendor). Dr. Denis McNamara states that “Beauty is more than an accidental byproduct of artistic production or a social construct that rests in the eye of the beholder. Beauty has a power.” St. John Paul II says that “Beauty enthuses us for work, and work is to raise us up,” work here being prayer, which raises us up to God himself (fun fact: the word “enthuse” literally means “to have God put into you”)! Thus, Beauty is very important. There are three characteristics of a thing that indeed make it beautiful to everyone (yes, everyone). The first of these things is integritas, meaning “completeness” or “wholeness”. The integrity of a thing, it having all of its parts and those parts being properly proportioned, makes that thing beautiful to us. By having all of its parts in proper proportion, a thing can reveal the truth of what it is to us (a cat standing on long, stilted, stork legs might be a fascination, but does not show us the “catness” of the cat, nor does it make it beautiful). A thing* that lacks integrity cannot show me the wholeness of what it is meant to reveal, and thus cannot be perfectly beautiful. And the church building is meant to reveal to me, first and foremost, heaven.

*FOOTNOTE: Please notice in this paragraph (and in most all theological texts on Beauty) the use of the word “thing”. Obviously, we are speaking in this section about the things of this world, not about the human person. While wholeness is essential to Beauty, it is not essential to the fullness of human dignity. No one, regardless of whether their body can be deemed as “whole” or not, lacks the complete dignity given to each and every person by God. It is not for their beauty that we should cherish each human person with the utmost charity, but for the simple fact that their dignity is to be upheld over all else.

Jennifer Ely and Brice Higginbotham, Liturgia, (Unpublished).

“...thinking in terms of sacramental theology, the church building ought to have what it needs in order to be legible as an appropriate sacrament of the glory of the heavenly Jerusalem described in the Book of Revelation. So questions of material, imagery, craftsmanship, location, intellectual content [the capacity of architecture to encapsulate and express knowledge given by its architect], ornament [the enrichment of a building so as to clarify use or its purpose], and decoration [the enrichment of a building in order to clarify structural forces at work] come into play as well.”

–Dr. Denis McNamara,
Catholic Church Architecture and the Spirit of the Liturgy

Reflection

- Where do I witness “wholeness” in my church?
- Can I see it in the building itself?
- When I see the altar, does its “completeness” show me what it is, and give me a sense of the fullness of what it is for?
- Does every piece of the whole church point me to that heavenly reality which the building is meant to point me toward?

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Preface Dialogue

 People: And with your spirit.
 Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them up to the Lord.
 Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
