SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

READING 1 ISAIAH 40:1-5, 9-11

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end, her guilt is expiated; indeed, she has received from the hand of the LORD double for all her sins. A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low; the rugged land shall be made a plain, the rough country, a broad valley. Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. Go up on to a high mountain, Zion, herald of glad tidings; cry out at the top of your voice, Jerusalem, herald of good news! Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God! Here comes with power the Lord GOD, who rules by his strong arm; here is his reward with him, his recompense before him. Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 85:9-10-11-12, 13-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD—for he proclaims peace to his people. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land. R.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven. R.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps. R.

READING 2

2 PETER 3:8-14

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard “delay,” but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a mighty roar and the elements will be dissolved by fire, and the earth and everything done on it will be found out. Since everything is to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be, conducting yourselves in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved in flames and the elements melted by fire. But according to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace.

GOSPEL

MARK 1:1-8

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God. As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.” John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. John was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

Entrance Antiphon

O people of Zion, behold, the Lord will come to save the nations.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie

You were sent to heal the contrite of heart:

Ky`rie ele`ison, Ky`rie ele`ison

You came to call sinners: Christe ele`ison, Christe ele`ison

You are seated at the right hand of the Father to intercede for us: Ky`rie ele`ison, Ky`rie ele`ison

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Antiphon

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Excerpts from the English translation of The Roman Missal © 2010, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Mystery of Faith

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, misere`re nobis

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, misere`re nobis

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, dona nobis pacem.

Communion Antiphon

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.

Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

The holidays can be extremely difficult when you are grieving the loss of a loved one. There is help and hope in surviving the Christmas season. Holy Cross offers a two hour seminar to help you learn...

- how to deal with the many emotions
you will face during the holidays
- what to do about traditions and other obvious changes
- helpful tips for surviving the holidays and how to discover hope for you future

Please consider attending to start your healing. You are not alone; let your church help you. Safety protocols will be in place for the seminar.

TIME

In the beginning, when God brought forth time and space out of nothing, “the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and made it holy” (Exodus 5:8, RSV-2CE, adapted). From the very beginning of creation, God had in mind the rhythm of the times of the human life. We rise with the sun, then sleep with the moon. We work for six days, and rest on the seventh. Summer turns to Fall which turns to Winter then to Spring and back to Summer. We enter into the wisdom of structure of the world as we live the rhythm of time. Not only that, but time marks for us the most important events of life. We celebrate anniversaries and birthdays and reunions and the like. And, deeper, we celebrate our Savior born for us on December 25. We remember our God who died for us on that Friday which we call good and who rose victorious over death on Sunday, the third day. Each Christmas we give gifts in commemoration of His birth. Each Sunday, we rest from our work, offer Him our Thankful praise at Mass, and feast with those whom we love. And each Friday we do penance in remembrance of His passion, penance in reparation for our sins and in intercession for our neighbors. We have been placed into this rhythm of times and seasons. May we embrace it, being lead each Sunday into worship.

“AS THE WEEKLY ‘SOLEMNITY’... SUNDAY WILL CONTINUE TO SHAPE THE TIME OF THE CHURCH'S PILGRIMAGE, UNTIL THAT SUNDAY WHICH WILL KNOW NO EVENING.”

POPE SAINT JOHN PAUL II, DIES DOMINI, §87

REFLECTION

- How is my relationship to the rhythm of times and seasons?
- Do I embrace it, or do I fight against it?
- Are my Sundays filled with rest and joy?
- Are my Fridays accompanied by penance and intercessions?
- Do I work diligently on the other days of the week so that I have the time to rest and rejoice on Sunday?
