OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

READING I

DANIEL 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming,
on the clouds of heaven;
when he reached the Ancient One
and was presented before him,
the one like a Son of man received dominion,
glory, and kingship;
all peoples, nations, and languages serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not be taken away,
his kingship shall not be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 93:1, 1-2, 5

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

The LORD is king, in splendor robed;
robed is the LORD and girt about with strength.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

And he has made the world firm,
not to be moved.

Your throne stands firm from of old;
from everlasting you are, O LORD.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed;
holiness befits your house,
O LORD, for length of days.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

READING II

REVELATIONS 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth.
To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins
by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.
Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him.
All the peoples of the earth will lament him.
Yes. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

ALLELUIA

MARK 11:9, 10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

JOHN 18:33B-37

Pilate said to Jesus,

"Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus answered,

"Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?"

Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I?"

Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?"

Jesus answered,

"My kingdom does not belong to this world.

If my kingdom did belong to this world,

my attendants would be fighting to keep me

from being handed over to the Jews.

But as it is, my kingdom is not here."

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?"

Jesus answered,

"You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.

Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSES

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Invitation to Prayer

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his holy Church.

Preface Dialogue

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe | Liturgical Significance

The study of the ritual actions of our worship and of the structures of our liturgical prayers is called euchology. This branch of theology is one that requires a deep devotion and deference to the guidance of the Magisterium, but which, when done with orthodoxy and charity, can help us to dive deeply into the mysteries of what we pray, basking in the ever present love of the Father. Today, let us look at the Collect, or opening prayer of the Mass, for the Solemnity of Christ the King: Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of the universe, grant, we pray, that the whole creation, set free from slavery, may render your majesty service and ceaselessly proclaim your praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. There are many points of this prayer on which we could focus for quite some time. For the sake of brevity, here are a few points for deeper meditation: "Whose will is to restore all things through your beloved Son": God the Father sent his only Son to die as expiation for our sins (Jn. 3:16), but not so that we might be restored to our original state of goodness; rather, he sent Christ his Son so that we might, in fact, be raised up by him to an even greater life eternal with him ("The enemy led you out of the earthly paradise. I will not restore you to that paradise, but I will enthrone you in heaven. I forbade you the tree that was only a symbol of life, but see, I who am life myself am now one with you. I appointed cherubim to guard you as slaves are guarded, but now I make them worship you as God." (from An Ancient Homily for Holy Saturday)). "King of the Universe": Christ is not simply the King because we declare him to be. God the Father has given all to him as his dominion (Dn. 7:11-14; Mt. 25:16-20; 1 Cor. 15:22-28), and thus he in his compassion and strength rules over the world, having conquered it and all sin by his Passion, Death, and Resurrection (Jn. 16:33). His Kingship is from eternity and to eternity, unending and unbroken. "Set free from slavery...": We, in our human frailty, find ourselves often in the grips of sinful actions. We can feel when we are far from the Lord due to our sin because the Spirit pricks our consciences, and we do our best to repair our relationship with God. And so, knowing that we have gained access to heaven by the merits of Christ, but also aware that we are weak and still find ourselves snared by evil on occasion, we groan for heaven and await the total freedom from sin that final union with God will provide (Rom. 8:18-25).

My heart overflows with noble words. To the king I must speak the song I have made, my tongue as nimble as the pen of a scribe. You are the fairest of the children of men and graciousness is poured upon your lips: because God has blessed you for evermore. O mighty one, gird your sword upon your thigh; in splendor and state, ride on in triumph for the cause of truth and goodness and right. Take aim with your bow in your dread right hand. Your arrows are sharp, peoples fall beneath you. The foes of the king fall down and lose heart. Your throne, O God, shall endure for ever. A scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom. Your love is for justice; your hatred for evil. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above other kings: your robes are fragrant with aloes and myrrh.

- Psalm 45:1-8

Reflection

- Does Christ the King have full dominion over my life?
- How has my liturgical knowledge grown over this past year?
- How can I continue to grow, particularly by way of more deeply studying liturgical prayers?
