READING I

ISAIAH 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

READING II

HEBREWS 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

MARK 10:45

GOSPEL

MARK 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him,
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."

He replied,
"What do you wish me to do for you?"

They answered him,
"Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus said to them,
"You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"

They said to him,
"We can."

Jesus said to them,
"The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John.
Jesus summoned them and said to them,
"You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSES

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Invitation to Prayer

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his holy Church.

Preface Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right and just.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Mystery of Faith

A - We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

B - When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

C - Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection, you have set us free.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us (Repeat)

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During October, the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, a time in which we're invited to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.

Holy Family Catholic Church

HURRICANE RELIEF EFFORTS

Holy Cross Matthew 25 volunteers helped to distribute supplies and serve meals in Dulac last month. We were also blessed to bring 5 window AC units, a dehumidifier, a chainsaw and a tent donated by three of our Holy Cross families. Your generosity has brought such comfort and love to those still suffering from the aftermath of Hurricane Ida. The need is still great, please visit Catholic Charities of Houma-Thibodaux to see how you can help in recovery efforts.

Sacramentality: People Part III: Communion & Solidarity

Now we know more about the body and the soul of each individual member of the Body of Christ. Now we delve into a further dimension of the human person: the fundamental need for communion with their fellow men and, of course, with God. Solidarity is one of the fundamental principles of Catholic Social Doctrine: it is the understanding that every person is interdependent on their neighbor. We are not individual beings who happen to look alike or live in close proximity; each person depends on the other in order for society to function properly. When we live in proper solidarity, we express the sacramental nature of the Church: for how can a body work against itself, or how can one part of the body think itself more necessary than another? We are indeed made for each other; we are made similar so that in the eyes of our fellow man, we can see a glimpse of ourselves, but also a glimpse of God Himself. When we worship, we worship as one: we speak words with one voice, one heart, one mind. Cultivating solidarity means going outside of ourselves; we must aid the poor, speak out against racism, forgive the sinner, remembering all the while that if we do not, we allow part of our own body to wither and die. Sometimes, solidarity means suffering on behalf of my brother; but just as the physical body suffers through the trials of exercise in order to become stronger, so too the spiritual Body of Christ must be purified of its prejudices, of its selfishness, of all its weaknesses, in order to become the worthy Bride of Christ.

REFLECTION

- HOW DO I AID MY FELLOW MAN IN THIS WORLD?
- IN WHAT WAY AM I BEING PARTICULARLY CALLED RIGHT NOW TO SERVE OUTSIDE OF MYSELF?
- DO I NEED TO PURIFY MYSELF OF ANY PREJUDICES AGAINST MY FELLOW MAN IN ORDER TO SERVE HIM/HER WELL?
- THIS WEEK AT MASS, ASK THE LORD TO SHINE A LIGHT ON THOSE PLACES WHERE YOU NEED TO GROW SO AS TO LOVE YOUR BROTHER/SISTER BETTER.

“As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” On the contrary, the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those parts of the body which we think less honorable we invest with the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior part, that there may be no discord in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.”
